

July 25, 2011

Amending Reports

When a report must be amended, a report form shall be filled out indicating that it is an amended report and shall show the amended test results. The report form shall state the reason for the amended report, the amended report shall be processed in the normal manner, and the amended report shall be filed with the original report.