

Governor & Mrs. Brad Henry

The land we belong to is grand! Those lyrics from our official state song (and it so happens, the title song to the hit Broadway play "Oklahoma!") are as true today as they've always been. We are a state and people tied through history, commerce and recreation to a land we love. Certainly, people who visit Oklahoma expect wide prairies, but many are surprised to find an abundance of rolling hills, mountains, pristine lakes and rivers.

No matter if it's adventure vacations or relaxing getaways, Oklahoma delivers. From dune buggy races to fly fishing, from rock climbing and rappelling to spectacular lake homes, cabins and resorts, it's all right here in Oklahoma. Our cities offer world-class attractions and our towns provide down-home entertainment. Cowboy heritage, Native American culture, a rich oil and gas history, renowned museums, the arts, shopping, sporting activities and events — there really is something for everyone.

And while visitors to Oklahoma agree that our land is certainly grand, most will tell you it's our people that help to make visits here so memorable. We're a friendly bunch. Oklahoma is a place to gather with friends and family. My wife, Kim, and I invite you to Oklahoma. We know you'll agree, our land — and our people — are grand!

Come and see for yourself.
