PR# 10-007

Toney Guinn of Wagoner has been named the Oklahoma Department of Transportation's Division One Employee of the Quarter for the fourth quarter of 2009. The division consists of eight counties in eastern Oklahoma.

Guinn works on the division's Sign and Centerline Crew and has been with ODOT four years. Guinn was nominated anonymously by a co-worker who said he has never worked with a person more deserving of the award.

"Toney is always prompt to put on his safety equipment and encourages others to do the same," the nominator said. "Toney has a very positive attitude and everyone on his crew enjoys working with him. He has truly demonstrated that he is dependable, trustworthy, and an all-around great guy."

Guinn and his wife, Kathy, have one daughter, Brittany. Toney enjoys raising cattle and watching Brittany play basketball.

The "Employee of the Quarter" award is given to an exceptional employee who is recognized for dedication, hard work and consistently exhibiting the highest standards in job performance. ODOT's Division One is made up of Adair, Cherokee, Haskell, McIntosh, Muskogee, Okmulgee, Sequoyah and Wagoner counties.
