

Protecting our environment. Efforts by the Oklahoma Department of Transportation to incorporate clean-burning biodiesel were recently honored with the 2010 Zach D. Taylor Jr. Clean Cities Vision Award from the Association of Central Oklahoma Governments. The achievement was noted at the Monday, Jan. 3, meeting of the Oklahoma Transportation Commission.

Pictured are ODOT Maintenance Engineer Kevin Bloss, Equipment Manager Chuck Howard and Assistant State Maintenance Manager Tom Wadley, along with ACOG Executive Director John G. Johnson, ODOT Chief Engineer Gary Evans and Rail Programs Division Manager Joe Kyle, commission Vice Chair Jim Dunegan and ODOT Director Gary Ridley.