

Excellent! A resurfacing project on the Okarche Bypass, a county road in Kingfisher County, recently won a silver award in the national Excellence in Concrete Pavement Awards program. The achievement was noted at the Monday, Jan. 3, meeting of the Oklahoma Transportation Commission.

Pictured are Don Russell of Russell Engineering, commissioner Vice Chair Jim Dunegan and commission member Jackie Cooper, Oklahoma Department of Transportation Enid area Resident Engineer Steve Roper, ODOT Chief Engineer Gary Evans and Perry area Division Engineer Paul Green, along with Oklahoma Concrete Pavers Association Executive Director Brent Burwell, John Jones of Edmond-based Duit Construction Co. and ODOT Director Gary Ridley.