

Peer review. Oklahoma Department of Transportation Transit Programs Division Manager Ken LaRue, center, recently received a national award from fellow transit officers for his leadership in the area of public transportation. The 2010 Multi-State Technical Assistance Program Outstanding Service Award was presented to LaRue for his work on transit issues with the American Association of State Highway and Transportation Officials. The achievement was noted at the Monday, Jan. 3, meeting of the Oklahoma Transportation Commission. Also pictured are commission Vice Chair Jim Dunegan, left, and Oklahoma Department of Transportation Director Gary Ridley.
