

Highways Go Everywhere

Highways let you relive great events in Oklahoma's history.

Highways go everywhere, even to the movies.

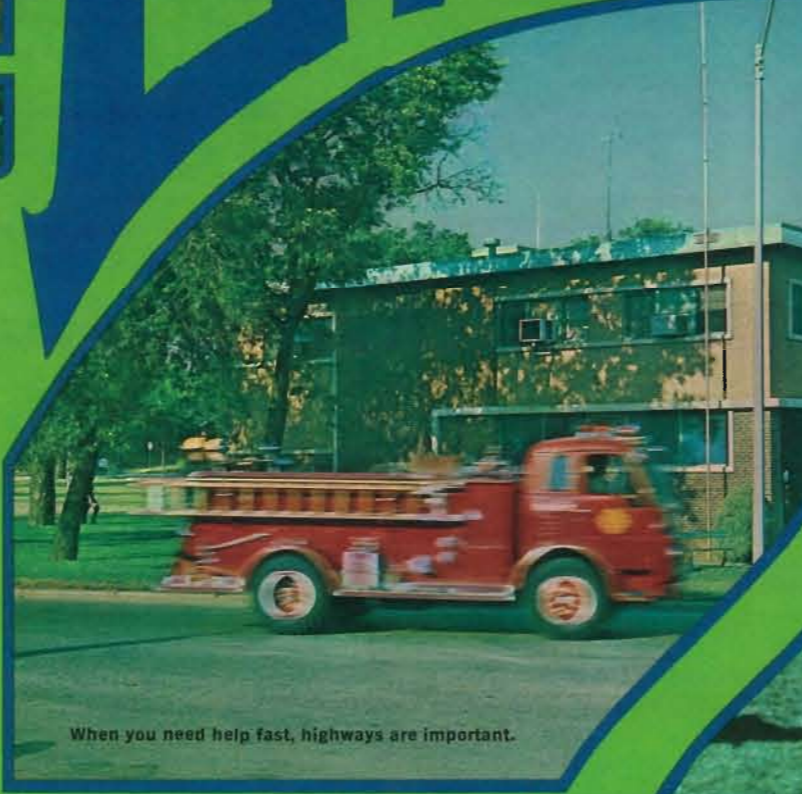

Highways open wide the beautiful scenes of every nature.

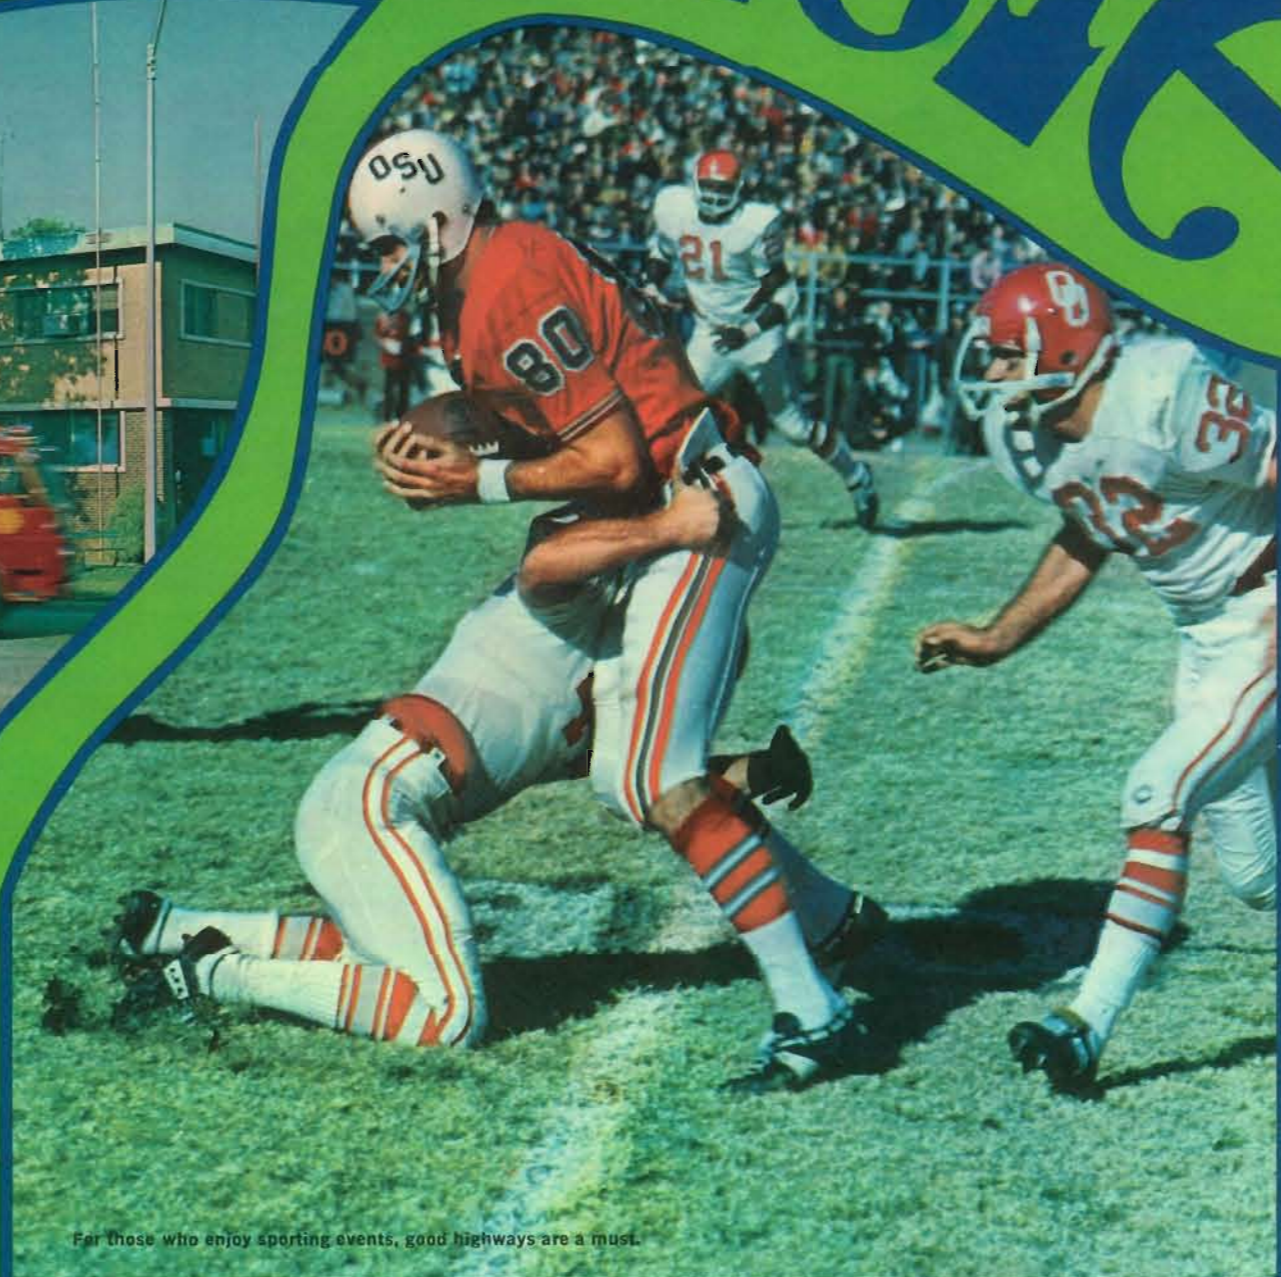

Highway travel is made more convenient by drive-in facilities of every nature.

Take your home with you, thanks to the highways.

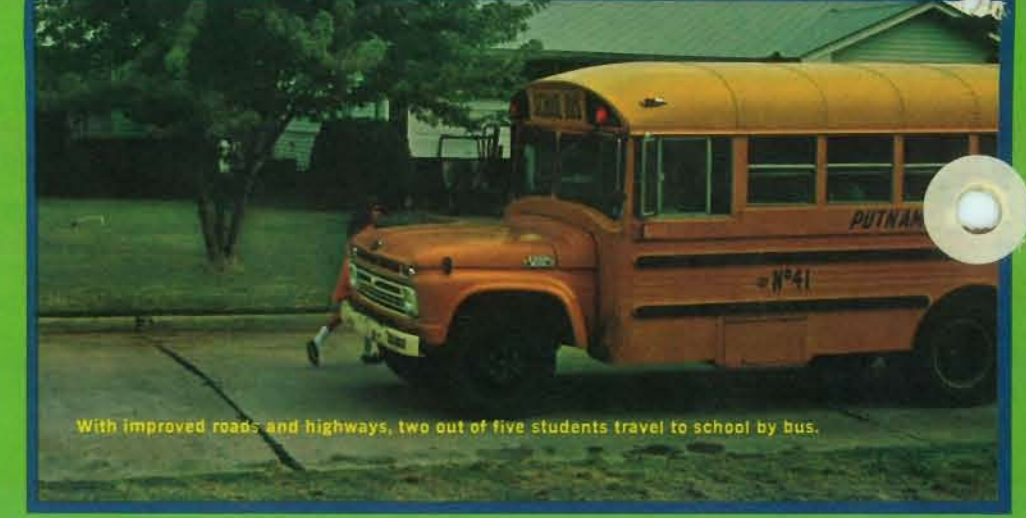

When you need help fast, highways are important.

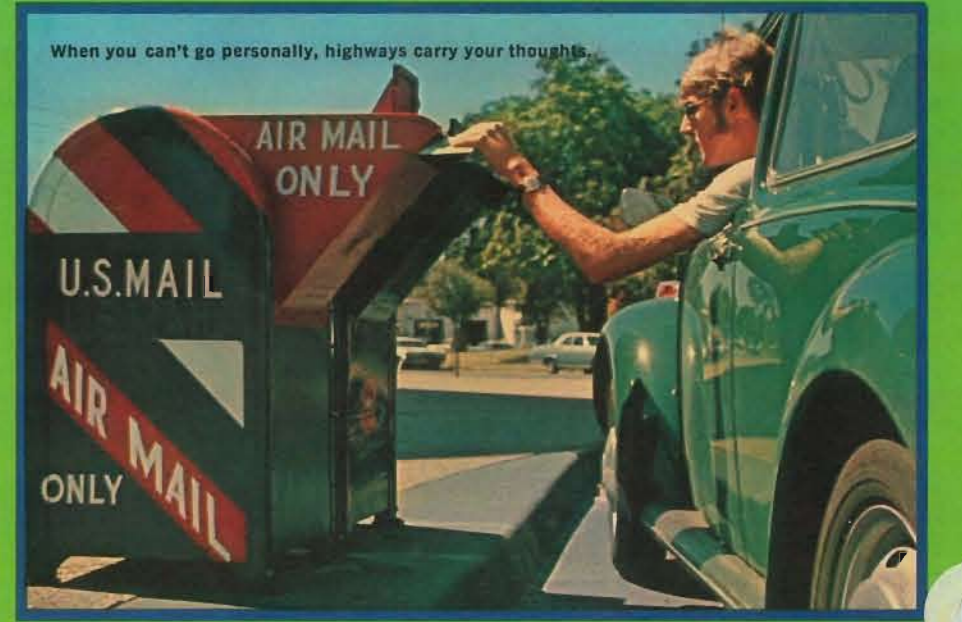

For those who enjoy sporting events, good highways are a must.

Highways effect all areas of your life.

With improved roads and highways, two out of five students travel to school by bus.

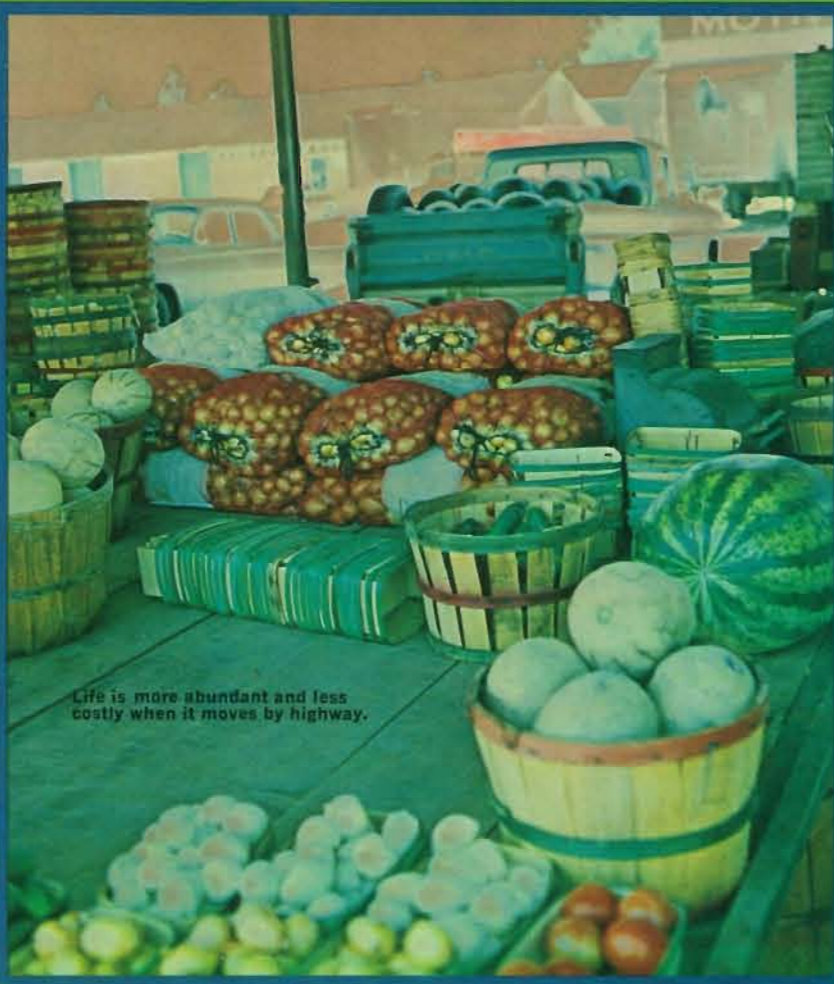

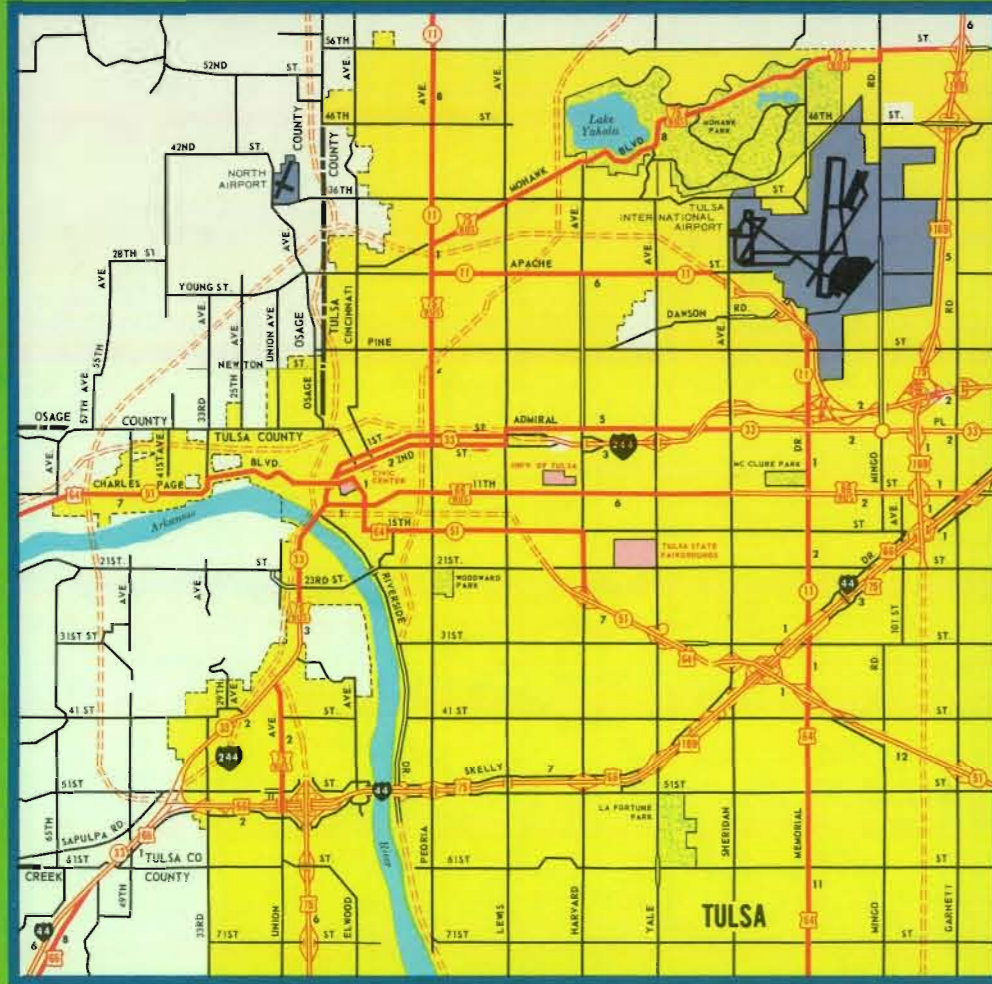

When you can't go personally, highways carry your thoughts.

Most of your business can be conducted without ever leaving your automobile.

No matter where you live, highways take you home.

Life is more abundant and less costly when it moves by highway.

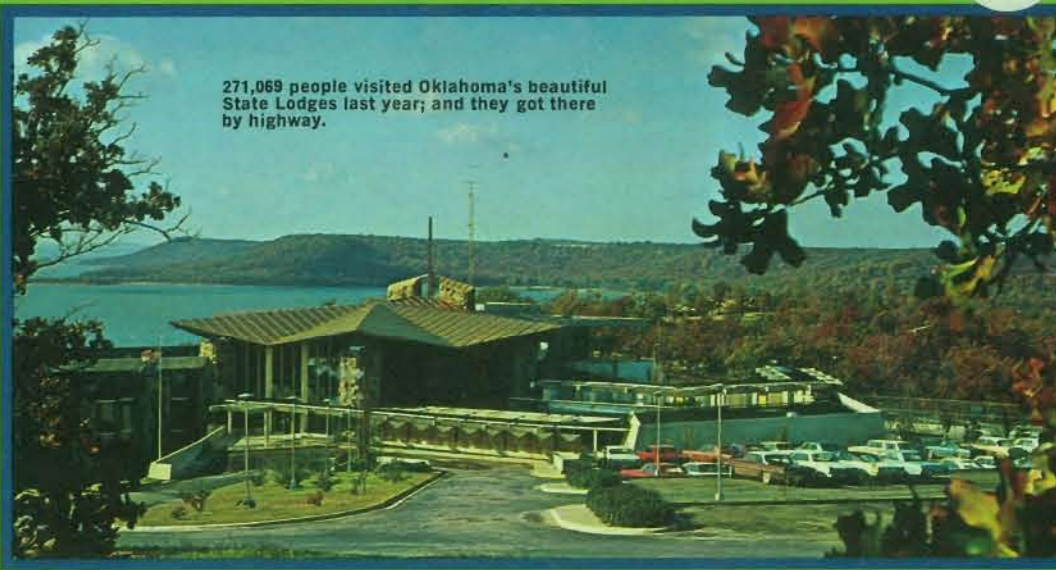

Highways help decide your future.

No matter how you go, your trip begins and ends on the highway.

All good things start with a highway.

271,089 people visited Oklahoma's beautiful State Lodges last year and they got there by highway.

1761
 Oklahoma
 Welcome To
 Oklahoma

Highways Go Everywhere . . . bring everything to you, and open wide the wonderful world that is Oklahoma. Whatever your business or your pleasure, all roads in Oklahoma lead to prosperity and excitement. If you are one of the many visitors to our fine State, we bid you a big Oklahoma welcome and invite you to tarry awhile and enjoy our countryside, see our cities, fish our lakes, learn our history, and meet our people.

David Hall
 GOVERNOR

