

APRIL

Outreach continued throughout the month, wrapping up the last week of April. Freight flow analysis has begun, and this will continue over the next few months. Potential projects are being gathered for review, and work continues on addressing public input and categorizing all of the requests gathered since the project started.